

CASE STUDY

Poor Atmosphere

Below you'll find the Profile II and the Diamond of the manager of an accounting department.

He has six accountants reporting to him. Their styles are identified below.

He is well liked in the company and participates in many projects that are outside of his normal duties. However, for some reason the atmosphere is poor in his department and a couple of employees have even threatened to leave.

Question

What steps could be taken to try to improve the atmosphere in the accounting department?